Re: Rummage and Garage Sales Considered Non-Essential

As of March 25, 2020, the Safer at Home order issued by Governor Tony Evers has been in effect for all Wisconsin residents. The order continues to remain in effect until Friday, April 24, 2020 at 8 AM, or until another order is issued.

According to the Wisconsin Economic and Development Corporation (WEDC), there is not a category that would classify rummage/garage sales as an Essential Business or Operation. To comply with the order, all rummage/garage sales should be postponed.
